

hot off the press...

SATURDAY PM

Evening all...

A special second edition of hot off the press brought to you in colour along with all you need to know about tonight and tomorrow's activities. We hope that the mud isn't causing you too many problems and you are still enjoying the weekend.

what's your passion?

We took to the muddy paths of FF to ask a few people what they're passionate about. Here are their replies:

- Speaker Baz Gascoyne says: 'I'm passionate about Darlington Football Club, my wife and sharing Jesus in a real and relevant way so people can experience him for themselves.'
- Christians in Sport representative Colin Wells says: 'Two things – a passion for God combined with a passion for sport.'
- FF management group chairman Eric Hudson says: 'My family.'
- FF catering manager Tracey Drummond says: 'I'm passionate about cups of tea, pussy cats and breakfast rolls which contain two slices of bacon, a hash brown and a sausage square.'

reel 2 real

Sunday's showings are

2pm - Charlie & The Chocolate Factory

4:30pm - Pride & Prejudice

11:30pm - Hitchhikers Guide to the Galaxy (This will be shown in Academy)

When accessing this venue NO coats or shoes are to be worn.

There will be a place to leave coats and shoes in the foyer of the house.

big arena

Sunday sees Delirious? take to the stage in the Big Arena at 8:30pm along with Cathy Burton 7:30pm, Elevate, Andy Kind, and the Grand Final of F Factor at 6pm. Speaker for the evening will be Mark Richie. Performance times are approximate.

F Factor

The performers who are taking to the stage later tonight in the interactive semi-final are Frank, George, Fandabidosi Free Girls, Zac, The Alford Girls and Adam. The successful three will go on to the final tomorrow evening.

BB Forums

The BB's very own message board, come and see for yourself and join the discussions.

Millennium Volunteers

We would like to apologise for the cancellation of the MV presentation. However, there will still be food available on Sunday at 3pm in the Plaza for those MVs who were meant to receive their certificates.

- Did you know that if you're 16-24 you can get a certificate for helping others?

This could include helping in your church, BB or GB group, helping with younger age group or helping in a youth group and any other voluntary activity that you may do.

Visit the MV stand in the Plaza.
